

MIRANDA BAIN

Miranda is from the UK and graduated from Cambridge University in 2014 with a Bachelor of Arts in History of Art. After university she travelled to western India to complete Tata's International Social Entrepreneurship Scheme in which she analysed the sustainability of farm-based livelihoods around a salt plant.

Her passion for social justice sparked her ambition to study international relations, to work with others to build progressive change. In addition to serving civil liberties organizations in the UK, including the Women's Equality Party, she is a trained ambassador for Women's Aid and responds to disclosures of domestic abuse while also raising awareness about gender-based violence in communities.

Beyond the classroom, Miranda distinguished herself rowing for the first boat in her college at university, re-establishing the art section of Cambridge University's student newspaper and was Co-President of her college's freshly founded feminist society, which rapidly became the most popular college society.

At SAIS Europe Miranda is a MA student concentrating in Latin American Studies. She is a member of the GWL Executive Board.
